Wild Flowers = Jane Lundin!

If you've done any hiking in Elkhorn or the surrounding area, you know the Idaho wildflowers are beautiful and abundant. We are so excited to have wildflower expert Jane Lundin share her love of wildflowers.

Lundin is a familiar name to wildflower lovers because she coauthored Idaho Mountain Wildflowers – A Photographic Compendium, with Scott Earle. She has botanized trails in Washington and Idaho for many years. With degrees from Stanford and University of Washington, she ran a lab at Georgetown Medical School, later worked as computer teacher and school librarian. She lives in Seattle and Ketchum with her husband, John Lundin - author and historian.

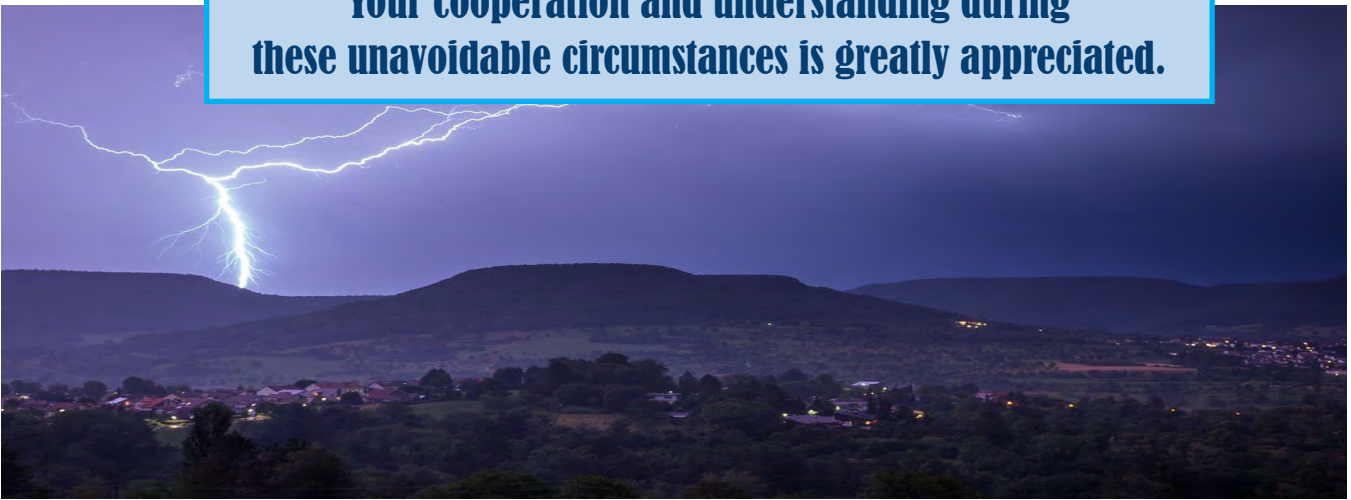

Date and Time TBD

Mountain Weather

During the summer months, the Sun Valley area often experiences severe thunderstorms. For the safety of our owners and guests, the association adheres to national safety guidelines and will close the pool and changing rooms anytime there is lightning in the area. This action at times is met with frustration by pool users.

Your cooperation and understanding during these unavoidable circumstances is greatly appreciated.

5B Swim Team

The 5B Swim Team invites Elkhorn youth ages 14-18 to participate in training with the team. A great opportunity to enhance your swimming skills.

Contact Brian Gallagher for more information.

Bird Walk

Poo Wright-Pulliam started her birding career in 1995 by asking a friend a simple question about a bird she saw: What is it? The friend handed her a birding field guide and challenged her to find and identify 100 species in a year. Wright-Pulliam finished the challenge in just over two months. Later, she took the Cornell Home Study Course in Bird Biology, reading every bird book and field guide she could find. Each year she coordinates the Audubon Christmas Bird Count near Silver Creek Preserve, and she leads a handful of bird walks for the Environmental Resource Center.

Join Poo as she shares her knowledge and expertise on Idaho bird species found right here in the Wood River Valley.

Dates: Monday July 18th

Time: 5:30 pm — 7:00pm

Location: Lane Ranch Pond Area - Park in the turnout area on Elkhorn Rd.
